Rules or Guidelines

- Delegates draw Delegate boundaries
- Delegate Districts follow census blocks and tried to respect municipal boundaries
- Delegate Districts are to be relatively equal in population, +/- 5% (overall variance <10%)
- Magisterial District Lines to be drawn by County Commissioners draw as soon as possible following State and House adoption so it is effective in the next County election
- Magisterial Districts may cross Delegate boundaries, but must do so by a complete precinct
- Magisterial Districts are to be relatively equal in population +/- 5% (overall variance <10%)
- Voting Precincts are a duty of the Commission but commonly assigned to Clerk
- Voting Precincts can be altered intermittently over the years
- Voting Precincts cannot cross Delegate boundaries
- Voting Precincts contain 250 - 1500 voters
- Voting Precincts can be split into A/B alphabetically if necessary (when voter totals exceed 1500)
- Voting Precincts should contain their respective polling place (or in an adjacent precinct)
- Polling Place structures should be a public facility, ADA accessible, and large enough to accommodate voters on election day
