

Sampling Survey of Potential Sources for Lists of BYA High School Seniors, Faculty & Staff, & Brief Class Histories

[Not Exhaustive]

September 30, 2006

[Note: Better possibilities are highlighted in red.]

1. General Potential Sources

UA 1008 UA 1008 1890

Commencement exercise programs, 1890-

Brigham Young University. This is the box of scattered programs that I examined. There are many gaps, and not much reason to review this, except for personal curiosity, to see what graduation programs look like.

1 copy available at HBLL Special Collections in Manuscript Collection - 1130 HBLL

UA 261 1896 collection, 1896-1913

BYA and University student register

I had hoped this would be the best source document, but in my hasty review, I could not find any graduation information. If you have time, a more leisurely survey of these documents may uncover useful graduation information.

2 copies or volumes at HBLL Special Collections

UA 564 -- Laboratory School records, 1896-1969

Register to the Brigham Young

L. Tom Perry Special Collections. Look for graduation records, graduation programs, class photos in their senior year, etc.

Records of the BYU Laboratory School,

1914-1968

Brigham Young University. College of Education.

College of Education. Records of the BYU Laboratory School, 1914-1968. 13 boxes (6.5 linear ft.), 2 albums, 4 oversize flat boxes, 1 carton (1 cubic ft.). Call Number: UA 564 Abstract: Includes correspondence, policy statements, brochures, attendance records, building plans, enrollment statistics, Immigration and Naturalization Services information, examinations, surveys, financial records, histories, and miscellaneous materials. Also includes information concerning BY High School and the Elementary Training School. ANY GRADUATION PROGRAMS? ORDER FORMS FOR DIPLOMAS? SENIOR CLASS PHOTOS with IDs?

UA 1177 1898

Election Cards, 1898-1921

Brigham Young University. Actual student records, including high school students. I don't know if the completion/graduation years are given for each student.

1 copy available at HBLL Special Collections in Manuscript Collection - 1130 HBLL

LH 1 .B73 B58 1897

White and Blue BYA Student Newspaper

Brigham Young University. I hope that the students published a list of their graduates each year.

1 copy available at HBLL Special Collections in Americana Collection - 1130 HBLL

UA 312 UA 312 1870

Certificates awarded to faculty and students of Brigham Young University and Academy, 1870-1931. Depending on how complete this collection is, this may be very helpful.

2 copies or volumes at HBLL Special Collections

UA 1283 1891

Certificates, 1891-1893

Brigham Young Academy. May provide some names, year of graduation, fields of study, etc. 1 copy available at HBLL Special Collections in Manuscript Collection - 1130 HBLL

LD 571 .B672 I53x 1970 197

Index to microfilm copy of news

clippings on B.Y.A.-B.Y.U. 1875-1923, as found in Journal History of L.D.S. Church Historian's Office

Brigham Young University. University History Committee. This microfilm is good -- many of the articles have been found and lists of graduates "extracted" -- but some lists may have been missed. Usually the only applicable dates for this project are May and June issues each year.

1 copy available at HBLL Special Collections in Special Collections Reference

UA SC 86 1902

BYA faculty 1876-1902

The Directory includes a list of all known BYA faculty and staff. This should be useful for double-checking what we have already compiled. Can be compared to existing list at:

<http://abc.eznettools.net/cgi-bin/ez-directory/dispCatAssoc.cgi?3&X329586>

or you can search individually by name at: <http://www.byhigh.org/Search/ByName.html>

2 copies or volumes at HBLL Special Collections

UA 541 UA 541 1893

Alumni Records, 1893-1975

Brigham Young University. Alumni Association. This list supposedly contains class histories, so it may include graduation lists. The Alumni Association often did not differentiate between high school graduates and collegiate graduates, so it will require your best judgment to decide which are which.

2 copies or volumes at HBLL Special Collections

UA 704 UA 704 1875

Historical files, 1875-1981

Brigham Young University. May include graduation lists or programs.

1 copy available at HBLL Special Collections in Manuscript Collection - 1130 HBLL

UA 219 UA 219 1876

Records, 1876-1892

Brigham Young Academy. It would be wonderful if this record contains graduation lists, or at least, listings of the senior classes.

2 copies or volumes at HBLL Special Collections

UA SC 32 UA SC 32 1876 Attendance statistics of the Brigham Young Academy, 1876-1891 Useful only if it includes graduation information.
2 copies or volumes at HBLL Special Collections

UA 338 1896 Annual statistical reports of the Brigham Young Academy for the twenty-first academic year 1896-1897, and 1900
Brigham Young Academy. Statistical reports are good for finding out how many students graduated in each category (Normal, Commercial, Music, Domestic, etc.). Then as we find lists, we can match the lists to the proper categories.
2 copies or volumes at HBLL Special Collections

UA 235 UA 235 1892 Records, 1892-1898
Brigham Young Academy. Preparatory School. When you think of "prep school" you usually think of "high school." This may be true, or this may be the "adult program" that taught elementary reading, writing and arithmetic skills to adults who missed their early education. Graduates would not necessarily be high school graduates, but they may have gone on to high school.
