Fortune Hi Tech Marketing is an international network marketing company that offers unlimited income potential.

For_Immediate_Release:

Hi there I'm Tom!

I am currently building a team with Fortune Hi Tech Marketing, FHTM (www.fhtm.net). I have looked at other network marketing companies but when I was introduced with FHTM I was very impressed with the ease of the business model, the earning potential and the ability to change my life and many other people's lives to make them financially independent. I signed up recently and am having the time of my life building my business.

When I looked at this company I noticed that it was different from anything I have ever seen in network marketing. First, the program is aligned with products and services that people actually want and need. It is based on the independent rep who signs up, becoming his/her own customer for products and services that he/she already uses on a monthly basis. No need to sign-up for products and services that are unwanted. Second, the model pays out more of the revenue (90%) to the reps in the system than any other network marketing company. The difference is that the company pays bonuses AND residuals, the combination of which make it the Industry's richest pay plan. Finally, the model is recession-proof – who isn't going to have cell phone service, or cable / satellite service? Everyone pays for those services whether they are employed or not. So there is no selling involved, just transitioning people in the network to services and products they already use.

Since I've joined Fortune Hi Tech Marketing, it has been incredible to watch the success of regular people who decided to take a chance on building their own business in the best marketing model in the world. I am building a team where our top earner is making over $80,000 a month, a lady in my upline has been doing it for 7 months and is making over $15,000 a month working about 5 hours a week, and many new reps in a few weeks are making over $1,000 per month extra on top of what they currently make. So the majority of our team is bringing in some great money.

Here's the basic business model:

We get paid on recurring monthly bills for products and services you and people you know are already using every month, and we get paid bonuses on new independent reps we sign up in our network.

We don't make or sell anything. We are simply the middleman for multi-million dollar companies, widely recognized, name brand companies like:

T-Mobile
Sprint
Verizon
AT&T
Nextel
Dish Network
General Electric
Ingrid Home Security
Identashield (Identity Protection)
Roadside Assistance
Lamas Beauty
True Essentials and many many more.....

There is.....

NO selling and NO collections

NO paperwork

Also.....

No experience necessary
